

KIM SMITH

www.tuckedaway.com
Kim@tuckedaway.com

WORK EXPERIENCE

2008 - TO DATE Studio Y Creations

Concept Designer

Responsible for conceptual design of props and displays. Involved from the rough sketch stage to the finished colour renderings of drawings for clients. Also involved in graphic design for props, advertisements, and presentations.

2008 151b Pink Productions

Animation Assistant

Responsibilities included tweening drawings, animating, cleaning up animation drawings.

EDUCATION

2004 - 2008 Alberta College of Art and Design.

Bachelor of Design with Distinction in Visual Communications. Relevant courses in character, concept design, and illustration.

COMMISSIONED WORK

2008

Illustrator - "Fresh All Winter" - A series of three print and billboard advertisements for the Calgary Farmer's Market done by Wax Partnership.

Illustrator - "Rapunzel - Expect the Unexpected" - One of Wax Partnership's advertisements for the 2008 Calgary International Film Festival

Illustrator - "Billy's Birthnight" - A children's book promotional cover for Paul Pierce.

GALLERY

2009

Contributor - "Tree house Show" - Group show and article at the Uppercase Gallery and magazine.

2008

Contributor - "Nightmares" - Group show at the Uppercase Gallery.

Contributor - "Little Critters" - Group show at the Uppercase Gallery.

Animation Assistant - "Zig 5" – Animated short for Bravo! by Fifteen Pound Pink Productions.

Contributor - "Old School" – Group show and publication from the Uppercase Gallery.

2007

Contributor - "Three Quarters" - Third year Visual Communications show at the Alberta College of Art and Design.

AWARDS

2008 Applied Arts Student Competition Winner

2008 Alberta College of Art and Design Board of Governors Award Nominee

SKILLS

- Excellent knowledge of Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator.
- Experience with traditional media: cut paper sculpture, clay sculpture, and acrylic painting.
- Working knowledge of Adobe Flash, Premiere, After Effects, Dreamweaver, and InDesign.

PORTFOLIO: <http://www.tuckedaway.com>